

Anne Tyler Hall Bio

Prior to forming Hall Benefits Law, Anne Tyler Hall practiced ERISA and Benefits Law with Alston & Bird LLP and King & Spalding LLP. She earned a Master of Laws in Taxation, with distinction, from Georgetown University Law Center and her Juris Doctor from the University of Alabama School of Law. Anne Tyler earned a Master of Science in International Development from the University of Bath. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Economics, magna cum laude, from Birmingham-Southern College. Anne Tyler brings her passion for helping businesses to her practice of ERISA law, and she enjoys helping clients meet their Benefits goals. Her firm has done so for multi-national corporations, national non-profits, independent schools, and other businesses in a variety of industries. Whether it's a question involving Employee Stock Owned Plans, Benefits in Mergers and Acquisitions, Healthcare Reform, Executive Compensation, Health and Welfare Benefits, or Retirement Plans, Hall knows her team must partner with clients to understand their goals before serving as effective counsel. Hall is a 2017 and 2018 Georgia Super Lawyers Rising Star with a Martindale-Hubbell AV Preeminent rating, and she has received Martindale Five-Star reviews from both peers and clients.

