

Monty Joseph is an Employee Benefits Consultant for Burnette Insurance Agency in Suwanee where he has managed the firm's benefits department for 26 years. He specializes in the design and implementation of group benefit packages as well as providing risk management guidance with HR compliance issues. He earned a B.A. degree from Lipscomb University in Nashville as well as the designations of Certified Financial Planner and Certified PPACA Professional.