

Pamela Williams – CSP, CPC
AtWork Personnel Services

As a Georgia Work Ready participant, Pamela has been a community employment advocate in Northeast Georgia in the placement of candidates since 2006. Pamela has a degree in Business Administration and brings 10 years of staffing experience in the areas of on-site management, industrial, clerical, professional, managing worker's comp claims.

As Branch Manager at AtWork Personnel Services – Gainesville, GA, Pamela manages the day-to-day operation of the branch office while fostering meaningful relationships with the office staff, associate-employees, clients and community partners. Pamela knows and understands the importance of staying current in employment laws, staffing industry trends and workforce readiness and offers a consultative approach in best practices. Pamela is an active member of SHRM and has obtained her American Staffing Association designate as a Certified Staffing Professional (CSP) in 2012 and her DATIA designate as a Certified Professional Collector (CPC) in 2013.